

When it gets to the fourth egg you start to see (right hand)

- * Reptativity of the line
 - * most of the times getting stronger with the curves
 - * four eggs, one in-side of the other like ⁱⁿ Matryoshka doll
- finally it's becoming an eye that reminds the eye of the snake in the 'Jungle Book' of Disney - the hypnotising snake
- ⇒ So an ovalic shape that repeats on itself hypnotise you, and the deeper you would look you'll reach the truth like when you'll open the Matryoshka and get in to the youngest Matryoshka you'll get into the child, the authentic or the inner child
